

Women's Sport Leadership Workshop

Following the success of the Women's Sport Leadership Workshop last year, Leisure Networks, supported by the Australian Sports Commission, is pleased to offer this opportunity again to women in sport across the Barwon Region.

The Workshop

Conducted over 2 consecutive Sundays, this opportunity is ideally suited to women who are currently, or looking to become involved on a committee or take on a leadership role.

Practical, fun, with great opportunities to network, the workshop will explore:

Day 1: "Myself as a Leader" - Interpersonal skills, dealing with difficult situations, creating new visions and planning.

Day 2: "Leading Others" - Practical skills relating to good governance including running great meetings, managing change and reducing risks for the organisation.

Facilitator

Sue Cormack, who has presented the Sports Commission's National Women's Leadership Workshops since 2004, will facilitate the 2 days. Sue is a dynamic presenter, who knows how local sport runs first-hand. Sue will be joined by Guest Speaker, Jill Evans, Director of Community Services, Golden Plains Shire, who will share her insights gained through her leadership of local organisations.
